GARBAGE AND ASH CANS ARE READY FOR SERVICE

Supply Received By City Monday—
Sewer Bids Referred for Tabulation.

After several weeks delay the garbage cans which were purchased by the board of public works arrived in the city Monday morning. They were at once unpacked and are now ready for the public. At the meeting of the board of public works Monday morning it was decided to place a charge of $1.50 for the ten-gallon cans and $2.25 for the 20-gallon cans. They may be purchased at the city clerk's office. The cans are constructed of the best grade of galvanized iron and have a handle and cover for the top. There are 75 ten-gallon cans and 25 20-gallon cans in the consignment.

Bids were received from F. G. Frank Stockinger and Staples & Ackerman of South Bend for the work of putting in the cans. They were referred to the city engineer for tabulation.

TWO TOURISTS ENROUTE TO FRISCO FROM THE EAST

Simon T. Schmitt and John A. F. DeLeon, who call themselves the "trans-continental pushmobile tourists", spent Sunday night in the city, arriving here Sunday afternoon and leaving early Monday morning for South Bend and other western points. The young men are traveling from Philadelphia to San Francisco, and expect to arrive at the coast city the latter part of October, although they were over a year on the road from Philadelphia to this city. Their mode of traveling is somewhat different from the ordinary overland traveler, as they take turns in pushing each other in the car, by this way cutting down walking distances for the day but are compelled to push a much heavier weight.

The couple left Philadelphia on June 30, 1912, but after reaching Toledo, O., one of the partners became sick and the trip was postponed until this spring, when they left Toledo on July 2. They travel from 15 to 25 miles a day, according to road conditions.

BUCHANAN MEN CAUGHT UNDER AUTO—TWO HURT

Returning from the Michigan City fire Sunday morning, the machine in which T. F. Cox, Delbert Vores and two other men, all of Buchanan, were riding turned turtle eight miles west of South Bend and plumed them beneath it. Mr. Cox saved three fractures in his right arm and was taken to Epworth hospital by a party of tourists from Chicago.

According to their story the men were driving along the road when a motorcycle came along on the wrong side of the road. In an effort to get out of the way of the motorcycle, Mr. Cox turned the machine into the ditch.

LUMBER YARD THREATENED.
Mishawaka was threatened with a lumber yard fire in this city Sunday afternoon when a grass fire broke out about 8 o'clock south of the Lake Shore tracks and at the rear of the Lowe Bros. lumber yard on S. Main st. Hard work with brooms by the fire ladders soon extinguished the fire but much trouble was experienced as the grass was very dry and the blaze traveled fast.

FIREMEN VICTORIOUS.
On Saturday afternoon the Ancient Order of Oscars, an organization of the local high school, played the firemen of Central station a game of indoor baseball on the city hall grounds and were defeated by a score of 4 to 3.

Sunday morning the Chestnut Stars of South Bend played with the fire ladders and lost by a score of 2 to 3. This was the first game the Stars lost this year, and they promise to get the scalp of the local firemen next Sunday afternoon when they will again play here. Sunday's game lasted 10 innings.

* * * * * BILLIE BURKE, IN LONDON, TRIES TO FIND OUT WHY SOME AMERICAN GIRLS MARRY ENGLISHMEN. * * * * *

* An Englishman Never Allows His Business to Interfere With His Lovemaking Appears to be Answer. * * * * *

* * * * *

BY BILLIE BURKE

THE SAVOY, London, Eng., July 14.—An American girl friend of mine took tea with me at the Savoy yesterday. It was the first time I had seen her since her marriage.

Remembering how many times I had been asked the question, I passed it on to her "Why do American girls marry Englishmen?"

"I think there are many reasons beside mere title and position. First, over home, I have always felt when Bob or Jack or any of the rest made love to me that, after all, I was a secondary interest. When they got together they were always talking about some business or sport which I did not understand.

"When I wanted them to do anything before six in the evening they never had time. They always seemed ready enough to give me everything but themselves. They telephoned the florist to send me flowers, but not one of them would walk with me in the early morning. They laughed at me when I asked them to go and see a picture.

"On the other hand, my English husband always had time to be with me, always seemed interested in the things in which I was interested. He knew enough about art to talk about pictures; he would even take a chance at a discussion of the latest problem play.

"He also paid me the subtle compliment of telling me about his business affairs (something the boys at home never did); got me interested in 'drains' and 'sanitary cottages' and other things about the estate. While he was rather masterful, yet he somehow made me feel of more importance in the world than a finely dressed doll to be cared for and played with and put aside whenever matters of business loomed up.

"The American man makes you feel that he is paying you a compliment. But the Englishman always feels as though you were complimenting him by accepting his attentions."

By a happy coincidence I met my friend's husband the next day and while waiting for her to join us at tea I asked him the question:

"Why do so many of you marry American girls?"

He took the question seriously and answered:

"I don't know about the other fellows, but in my case I was interested from the first in my wife, because she seemed to be so much alive. I had grown tired of girls all of the cold, quiet type. With the average American girl a man can find something new to think about every time he sees her. Her mind is as alert as her body. She not only thinks, but she is not afraid to tell what she thinks. She is a constant fillip to the more stolid English temperament. She makes you do things—starts your ambition searing."

"And will you be able to keep your ambition up to the standard?" I asked, thinking of the many American nominees who have yet announced his candidacy, although it is rumored that at least two are being groomed for the place.

One of these is Edward B. Zisler, the chairman of the republican county organization, whom it is said is being "favorably mentioned" in spite of his repeated statements that he would not take the office "as a gift."

The progressives are to hold a meeting Tuesday evening to determine a date for the city convention and also to determine whether it shall be a delegate or mass assembly.

Stellar lights are beginning to appear on Elkhart's political horizon for the fall election—it seems certain at this time that Mayor Ellis M. Chester will be renominated by the democrats. No avowed republican nominee has yet announced his candidacy, although it is rumored that at least two are being groomed for the place.

Charles H. Redding, age 84, and a retired Lake Shore employee, celebrated his 84th birthday in perhaps the most novel manner of any citizen in the country. He finished his 22nd complete reading of the Bible on that date.

Mr. Redding has found what he believes to be the best method of reading holy writ. "Read three chapters during the week and five on Sunday" is his direction for an intelligent perusal of the Bible.

Many Years' Test of Eckman's Alternative

For several years a large number of voluntarily written testimonials from persons who recovered from Lung Trouble have been received by the makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for the treatment of Throat and Lung Troubles. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to them for confirmation. Here is one:

5223 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.
"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Gripe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well."

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious in cases of severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Struborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Chas. Conkey & Co., Woods & Scribner and other leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.
